AROUND THE TRAPS

Members are reminded that the annual fees for 2017 were due on 1 January 2017 and all those who have paid will have received their receipt in the mail. Reminders have also been sent this week and any member not financial at the end of February 2017 will be deemed to have resigned their membership and will have their details removed from the member database. Remember, all financial individual members will be entered into the draw for the $1,000 Travel Voucher generously donated by Royce Water Technologies, to be drawn at the NSW Conference in Canberra.

We are very pleased to announce that WIOA and Water Research Australia (WaterRA) have signed an agreement on reciprocal membership benefits. WaterRA is now a corporate member of WIOA, and WIOA is an associate member of WaterRA. Our aim is to build the good relationship and share information to benefit the wider industry and in particular for the operational employees.

As the winner of the Australia's Best Tasting Tap Water in 2016, WIOA has worked with the team from TasWater and entered the sample from the Barrington WTP into the Annual Berkeley Springs International Water Tasting competition being held in the USA in late February. Our fingers are crossed it can go one better than last year's silver medal winning sample from Maysville, and bring home gold for Australia.

The World Environment Day Climate Action Awards entries are now open! Each year since 2000, the United Nations Association of Australia has presented the World Environment Day Awards to individuals, organisations, schools, councils, businesses and media leading the way in environmental innovation. Entries for the 2017 awards in the following categories close on Friday 31 March 2017: Climate Change Leadership, Excellence in Climate Research, Clean Energy, Infrastructure Innovation for a Strong Climate Future, Protecting Biodiversity from Rapid Climate Change, Business Climate Action, Community Climate Action, Climate Education and Engagement, Local Government Climate Action and the Media Award for Climate Reporting. The Australian Stockholm Junior Water Prize (ASJWP) is accepting entries for 2017 with a closing date of 20 March 2017. The ASJWP is an annual water science competition for high school students aged 15 - 20. The winner of the Australian competition, announced at Ozwater'17, goes on to compete internationally at the Stockholm Junior Water Prize during World Water Week in August. The student is awarded a fully-funded trip to Stockholm to participate in a week-long cultural exchange program with national winners from over 33 other nations. We can assist by promoting this fantastic award program to high schools in our local area, or teachers and students you may work with. More details and resources, including a flyer and information kit can be found at www.awa.asn.au/asjwp

Australian Industry Standards (AIS) is calling for input from stakeholders about a range of issues affecting the water industry. This information will be used to develop the industry outlook for the sector and help identify any new or emerging skills. The intelligence gathered during this process will assist in formulating advice on industry priorities, skill shortages and will inform future discussions about updates to the Water Training Package. Closing 21 February 2017, visit www.surveymonkey.com/r/2017SkillsForecast

The Government has asked the Productivity Commission to undertake an inquiry into the reform of Australia's water resource sector. The inquiry will assess progress against the objectives and outcomes of the National Water Initiative (NWI) and the need for any future reform. The Commission is required to; assess the outcomes of the NWI and related water reform efforts; consider the potential and realised benefits of NWI implementation; consider the scope for improving the NWI; and make recommendations on future reform priorities. More information and the inquiry terms of reference can be obtained from the Productivity Commission inquiry page at www.pc.gov.au/inquiries/current/water-reform

The program for the WIOA NSW Operations Conference and Exhibition in Canberra on 29 & 30 March has been set. There is an excellent mix of topics in the platform and poster sections from a wide cross section of authors and the trade exhibition has sold out with 130 sites filled. Delegate registration forms are also now available and can be downloaded from www.wioaconferences.org.au/nsw\_delegates.htm

A reminder that the Call for Papers for the Queensland Operations Conference closes on 22 February and to date we only have a handful of abstracts. We need member support, especially from those in operational roles, to make this event a success. Presentations do not need to be highly technical to be valuable, and often the best received papers are those that communicate how an operational problem has been investigated and rectified. Submission of abstracts can be obtained from the website: www.wioaconferences.org.au/callforpapers.htm

A Charity Bowls Day will be conducted by the Queensland Advisory Committee on Friday 17 March 2017 at the Yandina Bowls Club. All funds raised from the day will be distributed to charity at the WIOA Queensland conference in 2017. We are also seeking corporate support for this event and look forward to seeing you on the greens.
