

2025 MEDIA KIT FOR

WATERWORKS TECHNICAL JOURNAL

The bi-annual journal by the Water Industry Operations Association of Australia

The Water Industry Operations Association of Australia (WIOA) is a national not-for-profit association and leader in the operational side of Australia's water sector.

The association has a primary function of facilitating the collection, development and exchange of quality information between people undertaking operational roles in the water, wastewater and recycled water industries. One way in which the organisation achieves this goal is through its bi-annual journal publication, WaterWorks.

As a leading water sector association, WIOA has close ties with key industry bodies, including:

- Water utilities and service providers in all Australian states and territories
- State government departments
- Australian Industry Standards (AIS)
- Registered Training Organisations in all Australian states
- Trade and consulting companies supplying equipment and services to the industry.

WIOA Vision

To achieve excellence in water operations nationally, through knowledge sharing, networking and personal development.

WIOA Mission

To develop and support people in water industry operations.

Our membership base

WIOA members come from both the public and the private sectors, and include individuals working in the water or allied industries, along with suppliers of goods and services to the water and allied industries.

WIOA's membership currently exceeds

4,250

and numbers are rapidly growing.

WaterWorks Technical Journal

WaterWorks is the official technical publication of WIOA, and is produced bi-annually (May and November). This national journal is a key resource for those working in operational roles in the water and allied industries. WaterWorks is distributed to all WIOA members, as well as to key decision-makers in Australia's local government sector, including councils.

A comprehensive publication for water industry operations practitioners with content sourced and edited by WIOA, WaterWorks provides insight into a range of water issues in a high-quality journal format. It presents the latest news, trends, major projects and solutions in all the key areas affecting the sector.

Climate variability and extremes of drought and flood has impacted the Australian urban sector in the past decade. The operational side of the water industry is also coming under closer scrutiny from a cost, efficiency and customer affordability point of view. Publishing the technical articles in WaterWorks provides the opportunity for readers to keep abreast of the latest technology, products and improved operational practices, making it a vital resource for those in the sector.

Content

The technical content of WaterWorks covers a large variety of aspects of the industry such as:

- Management of large dams and storages
- Treatment and distribution
- Water supply
- Wastewater collection and treatment
- Use of reclaimed water or biosolids
- Project management
- Consultation
- Public education
- Asset management
- Development and application of new technologies
- Training and safety issues
- Efficiency and productivity gains

This makes WaterWorks a must have resource for those within the sector.

Circulation

WaterWorks reaches a wide and varied readership of water professionals and key decision-makers.

Each edition is emailed out to WIOA members and hosted as an e-book on the platform Issuu.com which provides easy readability and links through to available sources and advertising companies.

WaterWorks is also available at all WIOA conferences throughout the year.

Copies of WaterWorks are also mailed out to key industry stakeholders and are available as a hard copy to members through an opt-in service.

Readership

The readership of WaterWorks is vast and varied, and includes:

- WIOA members
- Water utility staff
